

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT — US TECH STARTUP (CLEAN BASELINE, IP FOCUS)

This Employment Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into between the Company and the Employee as of the Effective Date. The Company is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in San Francisco, California. The Employee resides in California. This Agreement governs the terms of the Employee's employment with the Company, including the assignment of intellectual property rights.

1. Notice Period. Either Party may terminate this Agreement by giving the other Party not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice. The notice period shall run from the date of receipt of the written notice.

2. Compensation. The Company shall pay the Employee an annual base salary of the amount set out in Schedule A, payable in equal semi-monthly installments in arrears.

3. Vacation and Leave. The Employee shall be entitled to fifteen (15) paid vacation days per calendar year, accruing pro rata, in addition to public holidays.

4. Termination for Cause. The Company may terminate this Agreement for cause, including but not limited to: (a) material breach of this Agreement by the Employee, (b) gross misconduct, or (c) sustained unsatisfactory performance. The Company shall give the Employee not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice of any termination under this Section.

5. Non-Solicitation. For a period of twelve (12) months following the termination of the Employee's employment, the Employee shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit any employee, contractor, customer, or client of the Company with whom the Employee had material contact during the twelve (12) months preceding termination.

6. Working Hours. The Employee's normal working hours shall be 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, with one (1) hour for lunch. The Employee acknowledges that the nature of their position may require additional hours.

7. Assignment of Inventions. The Employee hereby assigns to the Company all right, title, and interest in and to any and all inventions, original works of authorship, developments, concepts, improvements, designs, discoveries, ideas, trademarks, or trade secrets ("Inventions") that the Employee may solely or jointly conceive, develop, or reduce to practice during the period of their employment with the Company. The Employee shall disclose promptly to the Company all Inventions. NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING, this Section 7 does not apply to any Invention which qualifies fully for exemption under California Labor Code section 2870, including any Invention that the Employee developed entirely on the Employee's own time without using the Company's equipment, supplies, facilities, or trade secret information, and that does not relate (a) at the time of conception or reduction to practice of the Invention to the Company's business or to actual or demonstrably anticipated research or development of the Company, or (b) to any work performed by the Employee for the Company. The Employee has attached as Exhibit A a complete list of all Inventions that the Employee has made or owned prior to the Effective Date and that the Employee wishes to have excluded from the assignment under this Section 7.

8. Confidentiality; Survival. The Employee shall maintain the confidentiality of all Confidential Information of the Company both during and after the term of employment, for a period of three (3) years following termination.
