

EMPLOYMENT CONTRACT — DRAFT

(GOV.UK-STATUTORY)

This Employment Contract (the "Contract") is entered into between the Company and the Employee as of the Effective Date. The Company is a private limited company registered in England and Wales. The Employee is engaged as a full-time employee. The employment is subject to the Employment Rights Act 1996 (ERA) and the Working Time Regulations 1998 (WTR).

1. Notice Period. Either Party may terminate this Contract by giving the other Party not less than one (1) week's written notice during the probationary period, and not less than one (1) month's written notice thereafter, increasing by one additional week for each completed year of continuous service, up to a maximum of twelve (12) weeks' notice after twelve (12) years of continuous service, in accordance with section 86 of the Employment Rights Act 1996.

2. Remuneration. The Company shall pay the Employee an annual gross salary of the amount set out in Schedule A, payable in equal monthly installments in arrears on or before the last working day of each month, subject to deductions for income tax and National Insurance contributions. The salary shall be reviewed annually in line with the Company's standard pay review process.

3. Annual Leave. The Employee shall be entitled to fifteen (15) days' paid annual leave per leave year, in addition to the eight (8) public holidays in England and Wales. Leave shall accrue pro rata during the leave year. The leave year runs from 1 January to 31 December each year.

4. Termination for Cause. The Company may terminate this Contract summarily for gross misconduct, including but not limited to: (a) theft or fraud, (b) assault, (c) serious breach of health and safety rules, (d) gross insubordination, or (e) being under the influence of alcohol or non-prescribed drugs at work. Summary dismissal shall be without notice or pay in lieu of notice. Any other dismissal shall be subject to the unfair dismissal provisions of section 95 of the Employment Rights Act 1996.

5. Non-Solicitation. For a period of twenty-four (24) months following the termination of the Employee's employment, the Employee shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit or attempt to solicit any employee, contractor, customer, or client of the Company with whom the Employee had material contact during the twelve (12) months preceding termination, for the purpose of inducing them to terminate or modify their relationship with the Company.

6. Working Hours. The Employee's normal working hours shall be 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, with one (1) hour for lunch. The Employee's normal weekly working time shall not exceed an average of forty-eight (48) hours over a seventeen-week reference period, in accordance with regulation 4 of the Working Time Regulations 1998, unless the Employee has voluntarily opted out.

7. Confidentiality; Survival. The Employee shall maintain the confidentiality of all Confidential Information of the Company both during and after the term of employment, for a period of ten (10) years following termination. With respect to information that constitutes a trade secret under applicable law, the confidentiality obligation shall survive for so long as such information remains a trade secret. The Employee shall return all Confidential Information to the Company upon termination.

8. Probationary Period. The first six (6) months of the Employee's employment shall constitute a probationary period, during which the Company may terminate this Contract by giving the Employee not less than one (1) week's written notice. During the probationary period, the Employee is not eligible to bring a claim for unfair dismissal under section 98 of the Employment Rights Act 1996.

